Manna Youth Home in Taranaki is looking for awesome qualified youth workers the following roles:

- Kaiārahi (Transitions and Partnerships lead) to our taiohi. This role at Manna is a specialist, goal centred youth work and social service role. The Kaiārahi holds responsibility for taiohi goal planning, pathway development and connection into wider systems, services and opportunities.
- Bicultural Practice Champion for our community. This role is a specialist position that supports Manna's journey of honouring Te Tiriti o Waitangi, encourages staff confidence in tikanga and culturally responsive practice as well as supporting taiohi connection to whakapapa and identity.
- Kaiawhina. This role at Manna is the relational heart of Manna and is the day to day presence. Kaiawhina walk alongside taiohi to support healing and reconnection. They provide way for taiohi wellbeing, belonging and life skill learning for a thriving adulthood.

These roles can be separated or combined to make a 40 hour a week position. For the right person or people we will be flexible. The combinations are endless! 😊

You must have:

- Qualification and experience in youth work, social services, or a related field
- Strong ability to build trusting relationships with taiohi
- Confidence navigating education, employment, and social service systems
- Strong planning, organisation, and documentation skills
- Commitment to kaupapa Māori and culturally responsive practice
- A trauma informed practice framework
- Be willing to participate in our community life together at Manna Youth Home
- A commitment to Christian faith values and lifestyle

Manna Home is a residential home in Taranaki for 18 - 21year olds providing supported youth accommodation that incorporates positive communal living, tailor made wellbeing support, life skills, physical activities, mentoring, access to professional care, and spiritual & cultural practices. Manna is a Christian kaupapa organisation, supported and governed by The Bishop's Action Foundation (BAF).

Contact manager@mannayouth.org.nz for full job description